INCE-USA

The Laymon N. Miller Award for Excellence in Acoustical Consulting is an annual award to be provided jointly by the Institute of Noise Control Engineering of the United States of America (INCE/USA) and the National Council of Acoustical Consultants (NCAC). This award is to be provided to an individual who has practiced acoustical consulting in an exemplary manner over a sustained period of time to improve acoustical environments in and around buildings, transportation systems, work places, recreational and other occupied spaces such that the quality of life for citizens and communities is significantly enhanced.

This form is for the nomination of a candidate for consideration by the Board of Directors of Institute of Noise Control Engineering of the USA for the Laymon N. Miller Award for Excellence in Acoustical Consulting. The completed submission form shall be submitted with a letter that elaborates on the Nominator's reasons for considering the Nominee for the Award. The submission shall also include seconding letters from at least two references listed in the completed submission form. These seconding letters shall provide further support why the Nominee should be considered for the Award. The entire package of nominating information (the nominator's letter, the completed submission form and the seconding letters from references) must be received by the Vice President of Honors and Awards at least 3 months prior to the conference when the honor is to be awarded, to allow sufficient time for judging and voting by the Board of Directors.

Submission Due Date: April 9, 2020
